The attorneys of the Employment Practice Group of Eastman & Smith

invite you to our Columbus Employment Law Seminar

You may minimize your legal risks by becoming aware of significant employment law issues that could impact your business.

Friday, May 15, 2015

8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Registration will begin at 8:00 a.m.

The U.S. Supreme Court is weighing in on a number of workplace issues. Federal agencies are rapidly working to burden employers with additional restrictions and obligations. Join the attorneys of the Labor & Employment Practice Group of Eastman & Smith for an advanced and interactive discussion of significant employment law developments impacting organizations of all types. Discussion will cover:

- Tackling Difficult Leave of Absence and Medical Situations, Including new DOL Regulations;
- NLRB Update Involving Workers' Rights, Including Access and Use of Company Communications;
- New Employee Pregnancy Issues;
- Affordable Care Act Update;
- Expanded LGBT Rights for Employees; and
- What's Up In Workers' Compensation.

Please join us.

The seminar will include interactive workshops with individual attorneys. You can discuss how to identify issues and enhance the prospect of favorable outcomes.

Although you will be given an opportunity to ask questions during the seminar, you are encouraged to submit questions in advance to kalewis@eastmansmith.com so we can tailor our presentations to meet your needs.
